A warm welcome

We know that choosing your wedding venue is an important part of bringing your day to life. Whether you're planning an intimate gathering or a joyful celebration, The Old Bridge offers a timeless setting where everything feels relaxed, beautiful and just a little magical.

With river views, Georgian charm and food and wine we're truly proud of, we'll help you shape a day filled with moments to treasure. Our team is here to guide you gently through the planning, making every step feel simple, personal and full of care.

A house with a story to tell

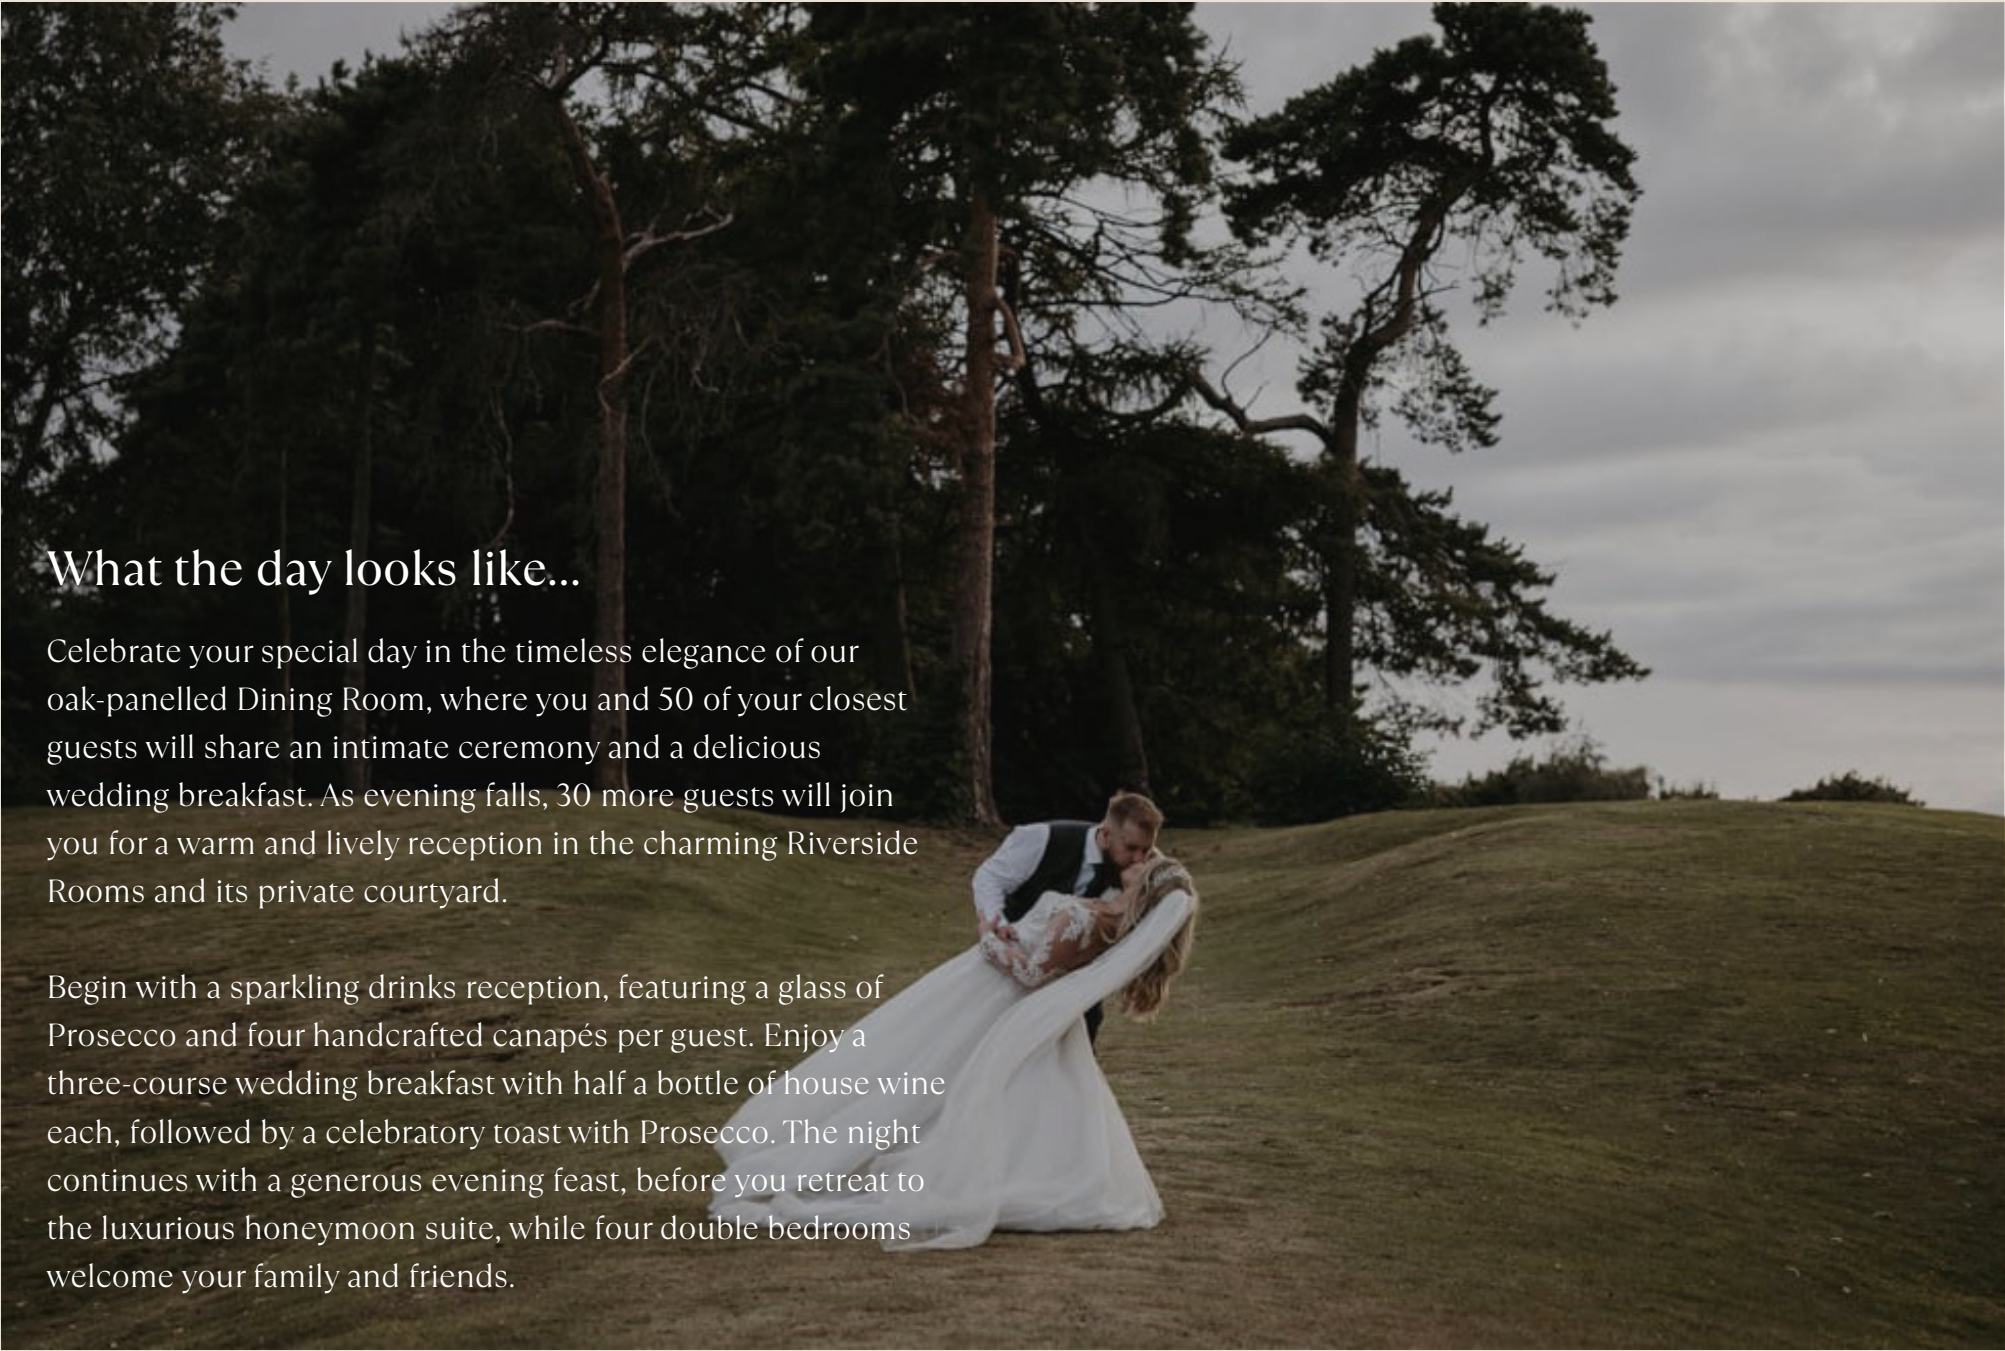

The Old Bridge has looked over the River Great Ouse for centuries. Once a grand townhouse and home to the Veasey family of local merchants, it later became a school, a family residence and, from 1919 onwards, a much-loved hotel.

Every chapter has added to its character — from oak-panelled rooms to riverside gardens — creating a setting that feels both timeless and welcoming. Today, as part of the Chestnut family, it remains a place for gathering, celebrating, and making memories. A house with history, ready for the next story: yours.

The Riverside & Bridge Collection

Thoughtfully designed and full of charm, our Riverside & Bridge Collections bring your whole celebration together in one beautiful flow – from the walk down the aisle to the final dance. With your ceremony, wedding breakfast and evening reception all in one place, the day unfolds naturally, giving you the freedom to be present and enjoy every moment. Whether you imagine saying your vows in our oak-panelled Dining Room or celebrating in the Riverside Rooms with its private courtyard, each space offers a timeless backdrop for a day filled with warmth, joy and just a little magic.

The background of the entire page is a romantic sunset scene. On the left, several tall, dark silhouettes of pine trees reach towards the top of the frame. In the lower right, a couple is silhouetted against the bright orange and yellow sky, dancing together. The woman is wearing a long, flowing dress, and the man is in a suit. The overall mood is warm and intimate.

The Ceremony

The Old Bridge is licensed to hold civil ceremonies across four private rooms, each with its own charm and character. We always recommend arranging a show-round with our Wedding Planners - they'll help you find the setting that feels just right for your day.

The Kingfisher Room

A good sized room that has three steps as you enter, making a lovely platform as you make your entrance. The wooden floor and white wood-paneled walls also make this a blank canvas to create your own unique backdrop for your nuptials. Legal maximum of 50 guests, including registrars.

The Dining Room

Light oak panels and deep, rich red colours give this room a very cosy, traditional feel. Legal maximum of 60 guests, including registrars.
